

Eid MUBARAK

UNIQUE ACADEMY

Nourishing the Fitrah of each unique child

@UNIQUEACADEMY

السلام عليكم ورحمة الله وبركاته

We are extremely proud of all children Ma Sha Allah. The progress has been excellent within our first month of starting.

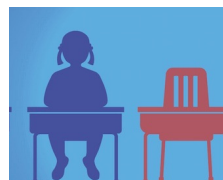

In sha Allah, tomorrow is Eid and we will be closed on the 13th and 14th of May for Eid-ul-Fitr, In sha Allah.

We will resume again on Monday the 17th of May, In sha Allah.

Monday the 17th of May is our very own multi-cultural Eid celebration as a school.

The children are NOT required to wear uniform and can wear cultural wear. The children can also bring a cultural dish from home into school for everyone to share, In sha Allah.

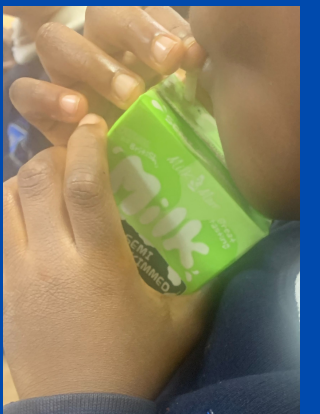

Following our attendance policy, 'parents need to make a phone call or send an email to alert the school on the days of absence, for registration purposes'.

May class fees are still due for some children. This is not applicable for those who have made full payments.

Please update your accounts before Monday the 17th of May.

Jazakhullah Khairun to all for your continued support and Eid Mubarak!

We look forward to seeing the children again on Monday the 17th of May for our 'Multicultural Eid Day'.
